SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of :

15 years

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached pages.

DEFENDANT: Edward Branger
CASE NUMBER: 2:14CR00332

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at www.uscourts.gov.

5. The defendant shall not be self-employed nor shall the defendant be employed by friends, relatives, associates or persons previously known to the defendant, unless approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. The defendant will not accept or begin employment without prior approval by the U.S. Probation Officer and employment shall be subject to continuous review and verification by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall not work for cash and the defendant's employment shall provide regular pay stubs with the appropriate deductions for taxes.
6. The defendant shall participate in the location monitoring program with Active Global Positioning Satellite technology for a period of 12 months. The defendant is restricted to his residence at all times except for employment, religious services, medical, legal reasons, or as otherwise approved by the location monitoring specialist. The defendant shall abide by all program requirements, and must contribute towards the costs of the services, to the extent financially able, as determined by the location monitoring specialist.

DEFENDANT: Edward Branger

CASE NUMBER: 2:14CR00332

7. The defendant shall participate as directed in a mental health program approved by the United States Probation Office. The defendant must contribute towards the cost of any program; to the extent the defendant is financially able to do so, as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer.
8. The defendant shall reside in and satisfactorily participate in a residential reentry center program, as a condition of supervised release or probation for up to 180 days or until discharged by the Program Manager or U.S. Probation Officer. The defendant may be responsible for a 10% gross income subsistence fee.
9. The defendant shall be required to submit to periodic polygraph testing at the discretion of the probation office as a means to ensure that he is in compliance with the requirements of his supervision or treatment program.
10. The defendant shall not reside with anyone who presents a significant risk factor, sexual or otherwise, as judged by Probation, in consultation with his treatment providers.
11. The defendant shall provide a list of all potential visitors to his home for at least the first 12 months. The appropriateness of each visitor shall be carefully assessed by Probation, in consultation with his treatment providers. Probation shall inform the defendant of the protocol to follow in the event an uninvited guest attempts to visit the defendant.
12. The defendant shall not knowingly associate with anyone, except while in a treatment program, who is known to be a sex offender or someone who condones or supports sexual abuse and/or exploitation of others.
13. The defendant shall not frequent, patronize or be seen in or around places or establishments that promote sex trade or sell pornography.
14. The defendant shall not loiter in public restrooms or around places where minors congregate, such as arcades, schools, amusement parks, skateboard parks, water parks, etc.
15. In order to attend an event where unsupervised minors may be present, the defendant must first obtain permission from his probation officer and have an approved chaperone.
16. The defendant shall not possess or use a device capable of creating pictures or videos.
17. Upon request, the defendant shall sign releases of information so that treatment providers, supervision officers, polygraph examiner, and others (as necessary) can communicate openly about his case and release conditions.
18. The defendant shall refrain from accepting or seeking civic, religious, or other voluntary positions where he may be in a position of authority; supervision; or direct influence over children and their families.
19. The defendant shall not possess or peruse any authentic, altered, or manufactured, in whatever form, material that depicts and/or describes "sexually explicit conduct," as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2) or "child pornography," as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(8).

DEFENDANT: Edward Branger
CASE NUMBER: 2:14CR00332

20. The defendant, who is required to register under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, must comply with all requirements of that Act. The defendant shall report the address where the defendant will reside and any subsequent change of residence to the probation officer responsible for supervision, and shall register as a sex offender in any jurisdiction where the person resides, is employed, or is a student. For initial registration purposes only, the defendant shall also register in the jurisdiction in which convicted if such jurisdiction is different from the jurisdiction of the residence. Registration must occur within three business days after sentencing if the defendant is sentenced to probation or time served, or a term of imprisonment and is not remanded. If the defendant is remanded, registration must occur within three business days of release.
21. The defendant shall participate in a sexual deviancy evaluation conducted by a sexual deviancy treatment provider, as directed and approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. The treatment provider shall be trained and experienced in the treatment of sexual deviancy, and follow the guideline practices established by the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA). The sexual deviancy evaluation may include psychological and physiological testing. The defendant shall disclose all previous sex offender or mental health evaluations to the treatment provider. The defendant shall also contribute to the costs of the evaluation, according to his/her ability, as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer.
22. The defendant shall actively participate and make reasonable progress in a certified sexual deviancy treatment program, as designated by the U.S. Probation Officer. The sexual deviancy treatment program shall follow the guideline practices established by the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA). The program shall offer individual and group sessions, and appropriate testing, to determine the defendant's patterns of sexual arousal, and to monitor the defendant's progress and compliance with treatment goals and conditions of supervision. The defendant shall disclose all previous sex offender or mental health evaluations to the treatment provider. The defendant shall also contribute to the costs of treatment, according to his/her ability, as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer.
23. The defendant shall submit his or her person, property, house, residence, storage unit, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties is due as follows:

- ☒ PAYMENT IS DUE IMMEDIATELY. Any unpaid amount shall be paid to Clerk's Office, United States District Court, 700 Stewart Street, Seattle, WA 98101.
- ☒ During the period of imprisonment, no less than 25% of their inmate gross monthly income or $25.00 per quarter, whichever is greater, to be collected and disbursed in accordance with the Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.
- ☒ During the period of supervised release, in monthly installments amounting to not less than 10% of the defendant's gross monthly household income, to commence 30 days after release from imprisonment.
- ☐ During the period of probation, in monthly installments amounting to not less than 10% of the defendant's gross monthly household income, to commence 30 days after the date of this judgment.

The payment schedule above is the minimum amount that the defendant is expected to pay towards the monetary penalties imposed by the Court. The defendant shall pay more than the amount established whenever possible. The defendant must notify the Court, the United States Probation Office, and the United States Attorney's Office of any material change in the defendant's financial circumstances that might affect the ability to pay restitution.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program are made to the United States District Court, Western District of Washington. For restitution payments, the Clerk of the Court is to forward money received to the party(ies) designated to receive restitution specified on the Criminal Monetaries (Sheet 5) page.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.

- ☐ Joint and Several

Defendant and Co-Defendant Names and Case Numbers (including defendant number), Total Amount, Joint and Several Amount, and corresponding payee, if appropriate.

- ☐ The defendant shall pay the cost of prosecution.
